Barber Course with Certificate

Learn everything needed to get a job in the barbering industry. No exams or theory. Completely hands-on training!

The Swiss Beauty & Hair Academy Professional Hairdressing School offers the Barber Course with the duration of 6 months.

In this barbering course, you will have a primarily hands-on learning experience. It is not necessarily necessary to have a diploma in hairdressing to get a job in this area. Barbering is an area that needs professionals with personality and skills in specific practical techniques that you will get familiar with during the 6-month course.

Our classes are held in the student's native language, in small classes, so that we can guarantee you intensive, personalized follow-up.

Professional profile for the Barber Course:

Learn everything you need to know about women's hairdressing. Take a look at hair history, customer consultation and how to deliver the desired end result to your customers. Learn colouring and cutting techniques, right through to styling and finishing.

Barbering Course Description:

Organize the work space and provide customer service and advice regarding hair and beard care.

Perform hair washing and scalp massage.

Basic principles of men cutting with scissors and clipper (classic, fades, creative)

Beard cutting techniques (rasage, contouring, grooming)

Create styles according to the customer.

Periodic evaluation and completion of training:

During Barbering training, you will undergo practical assessments. All examination results during the training are analyzed and graded by an expert barbering trainer. Upon successful completion of all the steps of the final examination, you will receive the Swiss Beauty & Hair Academy Certificate certifying your suitability to practice as a barber.

Barbering Course Goals:

The Swiss Beauty & Hair Academy Barbering course was carefully organized and structured with the aim of certifying Professional Barbers. Our teaching method is innovative and always up to date with market trends.

This course aims to teach everything from fundamental techniques to creative expression. The Swiss Beauty & Hair Academy Barbering course lays the foundation for those who want to enter the job market immediately with the certainty that they will surprise!
