Makeup Beauty Academy Art School – Theory and Practice in one

The focus of our make-up school is naturally successful in face modeling. But the path to perfect results is not easy. If there is a lack of theoretical knowledge, the more the practical part suffers. This applies especially to skin tone analysis. Especially when it comes to determining hot and cold types, basic knowledge is essential. A well-founded theoretical introduction is an integral part of our make-up school.

Professional Makeup School – Art of Makeup School

The face is the mirror of the soul. However, no other part of the body reveals more emotions, experiences, and impressions than this our spiritual center. Here harmony is especially indispensable. Derived from the word visage in French, the Swiss Beauty & Hair Academy's school of make-up is dedicated exclusively to beautifying the face. In manageable groups with a maximum of 5 participants, you will learn how to get the best out of each of your client's features, with teachings from the skillful use of colors to hairstyles, through the Visagist Make-up course or even your own through the Self Makeup Workshop.

Along with the trends

The teachers and experienced examiners at the make-up school are happy to pass on their expertise to you. They help you prepare your way for demanding practice. Whether it is facial science, modern applications, or professional technical and dermatological knowledge – our Make-up School offers you a sophisticated repertoire. In recognition of your training at our school you will receive a certificate, which will guarantee your personal ticket to a promising professional future.

Makeup Workshop

The aesthetic picture of the face: dense and curved eyebrows. But only very few are blessed with this ideal of beauty by nature. For those who are not, the Microbalding Workshop at our Make-up School is the perfect choice. Based on an ancient Japanese art form, fine and delicate hair is mixed in the natural growth of hair with a narrow pencil, the so-called tebori. In a gentle way, they give new volume, expressiveness and shine as a result of the eyebrow. Microblading brings the face frame back to shape, especially in the case of missing or incomplete eyebrows.

Microblading and its technique

The technique seems simple but requires a lot of practice. In microblading courses you will acquire both theoretical and practical knowledge, for a successful result. At our make-up school you will gain valuable practical knowledge for a first-class eyebrow design of your own model. The specialized multilingual trainers of our internationally oriented Art of Makeup School are at your disposal at any time. Do you have any questions about the courses offered at our make-up school?
