Nail Design – Keep up with the trends

Nail Design is synonymous with versatility, trend awareness and sense of style. Hardly any other beauty sector is as quick to catch up as the nail art sector. Anyone who wants to practice this profession successfully should always keep up to date with what is new. In our course, in addition to traditional nail design techniques, our trainers will also familiarize you with current trends. From classics like Nail Art French, to seasonal fashion colors, or extravagant practices like the popular Stiletto nail variant, to new creations. Come and learn from us!

Nail course – organic nails as a gentle alternative

In general, the gel or acrylic nail technique is well tolerated in any type of nail, with the only exception: delicate nails. At Swiss Beauty & Hair Academy, we offer training that allows you to adopt this type of service to clients who have this problem – BioGel training! The product used for this type of practice has been specially designed for weak and sensitive nails, in order to ensure that fingernails and toenails look good. The secret of success: nails made of water-soluble powder. Instead of methacrylates, the proven organic product contains vitamin E and calcium, ensuring a gentle application. The interaction of the natural active ingredients gives an elegant appearance without damaging the nails. Our Bionails training is also intended for professional nail designers who wish to acquire this precious knowledge.
