Microblading Course

Microblading Course

Learn the most innovative Micropigmentation technique and become an Eyebrow Design Expert!

Microblading is a millenary Japanese art that consists of implanting pigment through a manual inductor called Tebori, where a small blade with microneedles arranged in a row is inserted, allowing the construction of ultra-thin and delicate threads, which are mixed with natural ones. Ideal for those who want a perfect brow design. Our school offers the Microblading Course in several languages. The practical classes are partially held in mixed groups, which allows interaction with other cultures during the course.

Microblading Workshop | Tebori

Become an Expert Brow Designer with our Eyebrow Design course

Objectives of the Tebori / Microblading course:

This qualification in Microblading is a specialisation course aimed at those with experience in the field of Aesthetics or for anyone wanting to enter this field. Microblading is undertaken on people who, for whatever reason, wish to gain fuller eyebrows or those who simply wish to shape their eyebrows. Such as people who, due to health issues, stress or hormonal problems, have experienced hair loss, to a greater or lesser extent, or those who have lost their eyebrows and thus wish to recreate them. In the case of people who have depleted or patchy eyebrows, microblading fills in the entire eyebrow line, making it appear abundant in volume. This is a very sought after technique and requires a qualified professional to carry out the procedure, so as to not damage the customer's skin and existing eyebrows.

The Swiss Beauty & Hair Academy offers all of the conditions necessary to the development of professionals, so that they are fully prepared to innovatively operate in the area of Tebori. The Microblading Course is offered in various languages. The practical exercises during the micropigmentation course partly take place in mixed groups, which enables an exchange with students from other cultures during the course.

Objectives:

The objective of our course is to impart the comprehensiveness and modernity of our innovative course. The course is held in small groups, which enables an intense and personal attention for all students.

Theoretical description of the Microblading Course:

- Basic concepts regarding the origin of Microblading
- Skin anatomy and physiology
- Cosmetology
- Differences between micropigmentation and microblading
- Types of pigment
